

3年生用

3年ゼミ コースアウトライン

Class and Society in Contemporary Britain (現代イギリスにおける階級社会)

教員名: Trevor ASTLEY (トレバー・アストリー)

授業概要

This seminar provides an introduction to contemporary British society and attempts to understand the role of social class in the everyday life of people in Britain today. We will examine the nature of social class and class consciousness in both contemporary and historical contexts and consider the relationship between social class and the life and thought of British people in terms of how class relates to such areas of life as politics, education, work, social mobility, and culture.

Background to social class in Britain

- Historical background of the class system in modern Britain
- Class divisions and class consciousness
- Social thought and class conflict
- Social mobility and class in contemporary Britain

Class and society in Britain

- Class and politics
- Class and education
- Class and work
- Class and rock, pop, and punk music

授業の形式

Information will be given to students in the form of readings in English and short lectures and presentations in English with some Japanese explanation. Some English–Japanese vocabulary lists will also be provided. There will also be student presentations in English and student-led group discussion, primarily in English.

課題・成績評価基準

Reports, student presentations

その他

This course will allow you to practise your English skills and your presentation and academic writing skills as well as develop your research skills. It will be of interest to students who want to know more about Britain, but also those who want to understand social systems.