

Table of Contents

1. Action Research Report

- 1) Aki Hakamada (Junior High School)
“More Communicative Activities in Classroom”
- 2) Aya Yanagida (Senior High School)
“Teaching Grammar Class in Communicative Approach”
- 3) Hiromi Osuka (Junior High School)
“How should we improve Japanese students’ communication abilities in English?”
- 4) Hiromi Tsuji (Senior High School)
“Integrating Language Skills in English II”
- 5) Joseph Wood (University)
“Different level students working together in the same class”
- 6) Keiko Takahashi (Senior High School)
“Developing in-class extensive reading activities to support students reading”
- 7) Mie Kato (Senior High School)
“Reflective journal – process writing for monthly essay”
- 8) Mikio Ono (Senior High School)
“Effective ways to let the students think and act in English”
- 9) Mina Westby (Language School)
“Developing Reading skills by integrating three other skills”
- 10) Mitsuru Hirano (Senior High School)
“Improving a student’s English level through communicative language activities”
- 11) Miwako Kushiro (Senior High School)
“Teaching Grammar through Tasks”
- 12) Miyuki Inoko (Senior High School)
“Developing Students’ Reading Skills by Integrated Language Learning”
- 13) Norihiko Nagi (Senior High School)
“Integrating Language Skills in Reading Classes”

14) Noriko Ishitobi (Junior High School)

“Integrating language skills to develop students’ communicative ability”

15) Reiko Iwai (Senior High School)

“Lesson Plan: Oral Communication I (Use Grammar Text Book)”

16) Seiji Shintani (Senior High School)

“Integrated English Learning in Writing Class”

17) Tomohide Nagase (Senior High School)

“Prompting the CLT and improving the students’ integrated language skills in English I”

18) Yoshiaki Funahashi (Senior High School)

“Improve reading skill”

19) Yuji Tanaka (Junior High School)

2. Newsletter

No. 1: Juanita Heigham ‘Vocabulary Study: Making It Efficient and Effective’

No. 2: Kazuyoshi Sato ‘From a Lesson Plan to Curriculum Development’

No.3: Suzanne Bonn ‘Learner Training: How Teachers Can Support Students in Their Learning’

No.4: Kazuyoshi Sato “Task-Based Language Teaching (TBLT)”

No.5: Nancy Mutoh “Tasks Based on Text”

No.6: Miwako Kushiro “Form-Focused Tasks in a High School Classroom”

No.7: Junko Yamanaka “How to make Your Students Joyful, Life-long Readers: Is Extensive Reading the Key?”

No.8: Paul Crane “Conversation Strategies: Who, What, When, Why, and How”

No.9: Mathew White “Exploring FUNdamentals in Teaching Topic Studies Courses”

No.10: Tim Murphey “Student and Teacher Hope, Agency, Re-motivation, and Altruism”

No.11: Brian Cullen “Ireland: Land of Song and Story”

No.12: Brad Deacon “Teaching Listening Skills: D'ya Hear Me?”

No.13: Final Presentation